You are more than words can say,
More than words can say,
More than any single name,
More than words can say.
You are more than words can say,
More than words can say,
More than any single name,
More than words can say

You’re like a father, you’re like a mother who always loves us, who’s always there.
You’re like a best friend who will do anything to show how much you care.

Chorus

You are a teacher, you are Creator, the Source of beauty, justice, and truth.
You are a shepherd, and if we lose our way, you bring us back to you.

Chorus
